

Imperial County Farm Bureau Email Newsletter Sponsorship & Advertisement

Thank you for your interest in advertising with Imperial County Farm Bureau!

The Imperial County Farm Bureau emails out an electronic newsletter monthly to all members who have an email account listed on their membership (currently over 600). Subject matter is relevant and timely, featuring upcoming workshops or events, legislative updates, and information on new or upcoming regulations.

The majority of our membership is directly involved in agricultural production. The remaining members are farm service providers, peripherally involved in agriculture (ag lenders, for instance), or are simply interested in supporting agriculture in Imperial Valley. Most members in our e-news mailing list are directly or indirectly involved in agriculture production, and the content of the publication is aimed at farmers, ranchers and farm service providers.

Email Newsletter Sponsorship - $150

Each email newsletter has an exclusive sponsor. Your company will be featured as the sponsor of the issue at the top of the email newsletter. Advanced reservations are strongly advised for this product as it fill up quickly.
